KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

Clarence Sturgeon, who killed three men in a fit of jealousy, was hanged at Louisville last Friday.

Leonard Tucker, a bartender at Maysville, was badly cut with a knife in the hands of a drunken negro one day last week.

The Salvation Army distributed over 200 pairs of shoes to poor children of Louisville at an entertainment given them New Year's night.

Night riders again went on the warpath the other night. Over $200,000 worth of property was destroyed in Russellville and the vandalism of Hopkinsville repeated.

The "Peaceful Army," an adjunct of the night riders, is making things just as riotous in Bracken and adjoining counties as they are in Christian, Trigg and other western counties.

Joel I. Lile, one of the most prominent farmers of Fayette county, died Monday afternoon at the Good Samaritan hospital in Lexington, where he had undergone a serious operation several days before, and from which, owing to his advanced age, being 83 years old, he never recovered.

Sheriff Mackey, of Mason county, and Chief of Police Ort, of Maysville, anticipating a raid from the "peaceful army" of Bracken county have sworn in a lot of deputies and are guarding all the roads leading into the city. Should any attempt be made to defy the law bloodshed will follow.

The special term of Circuit court in Christian county to investigate the night riders raids in Hopkinsville was opened with prayer by Rev. C. H. Branch, of the Presbyterian church. The grand jury was impaneled and at once began the work of investigation and examination of witnesses.

Wm. C. Owens and Samuel Wilson, of the counsel for Caleb Powers, have drawn up a petition for his pardon on the ground that he has had four trials and that the jury in the last one were unable to agree as to his guilt or innocence, but that ten of the twelve stood out for his acquittal.

Burt Wing, aged 50, white, and John Clark, aged 43, colored, both life prisoners in the penitentiary at Frankfort, escaped Monday afternoon. Wing was sent up from Louisville eighteen years ago for the murder of his wife and had been a trusty for ten years. Clark killed a negro at Shelbyville, and had also been a trusty for many years.

After deliberating for several days and failing to agree, the jury in the Powers case were dismissed Saturday morning. His attorneys at once moved the prisoner be admitted to bail, but was overruled by Judge Morris and the next trial set for the first Monday in July next. The jury stood ten for acquital and two for conviction.

Woodson McCord the famous ex-sheriff of Clark county, was stabbed in the neck the other night by William Oliver. McCord was foreman of the last grand jury, which indicted Oliver for inebriety. Oliver accused McCord of putting his name on the record and told several persons he was going to kill him. He walked into McCord's office and cut him as stated. McCord will recover.

John C. Wood, of the Mt. Sterling Gazette, W. Hoffman Wood, formerly local editor, and Ben W. Hall, postmaster of Mt. Sterling, have been indicted in the Rowan Circuit court on the charge of libel against Judge Allie W. Young, Judge John M. Lassing and Mott Ayres. All the men gave bond in the sum of $500 and the case will be tried at the March term of court. Judge Young presides over the district in which the indictment was found.

In delivering his charge to the grand jury, Judge Stout, of the Franklin Circuit court, in part said: "These outbursts of anarchy have done more to injure the cause of the producer of tobacco than could have been effected by all the trusts and all the money power of the United States." And further added: "Let no man or set of men lay the flattering unction to their souls that they are above the law. Men must not go about in fancied security. No man is secure from the whipping of justice."

A Cure for Misery.

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria poison produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time; and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at all dealers.

A Duel to the Death.

Tuesday evening, Dec. 30, about 7:30 o'clock, a most shocking and horrible tragedy occurred in Beattyville, when Joseph Davidson, marshal of the city, and Robert S. Evans, a prominent grocer, engaged in a pistol duel in the latter's store, which resulted in the death of both.

There was only one person present besides the combatants, Carter D. Stamper. We have not talked with him about the matter, but as we understand it, both men were under the influence of liquor. They had been drinking and singing, and Evans finally announced that he must go home to supper. He put his hand in his pocket, presumably to get his keys, and Davidson told him to take his hand out of his pocket. Evans said he didn't want any trouble and Davidson began firing, one shot taking effect in Evans' head, two in his hips and one missed him. Evans fired two shots, one striking Davidson in the face and the other in the heart.

Evan's brains were shot out and he fell dead. Davidson lived two or three minutes.

Joseph Davidson was a native of Perry county. He moved here many years ago and been marshal of Beattyville several years. He was a fearless officer and made an excellent marshal until he began drinking some time ago. It is probable that he was mentally unbalanced at the time of the shooting as many of his friends have noticed that he was acting queerly for some time. He leaves two sons, Robert and Henry, and four daughters, Mrs. S. L. Combs, Malvia, Nellie and Nannie.

Robert Evans came here from Owsley county two or three years ago and has been engaged in the meat and grocery business with considerable success. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Both men were in the prime of strong and vigorous manhood, each forty-eight years old. They were prominent citizens and their death, coming as it did, shocked the whole community.

The last thing they did in this world, except to shoot, was to sing the old song, "When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there." Then they went together to "The Calling of the Roll."—Beattyville Enterprise.

Rank Foolishness.

"When attacked by a cough or cold, or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. King's New Discovery," says C. O. Eldredge, of Empire, Ga. "I have used New Discovery for seven years and I know it is the best remedy on earth for coughs and colds, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. My children are subject to croup, but New Discovery quickly cures the attack." Known the world over as the King of throat and lung remedies. Sold under guarantee by all dealers. 50¢ and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A Glowing Tribute.

The following concerning our congressman, Hon. John W Langley, is quoted from a recent issue of the Baltimore American:

"When John W. Langley took his seat the other day, as a brand new congressman from Kentucky, he could do something that probably no new member of congress in the history of the nation was ever able to do.

"Mr. Langley could have walked up to three out of every four of the representatives, called them by name, and in turn be greeted by them with the cordiality extended to an old friend. Crossing over to the senate, he could have manifested an even wider acquaintance, as that body has undergone fewer changes than the house. The reason of this wide scope of personal knowledge lies in the fact that up to a late period Langley has been chief clerk and disbursing officer of the census bureau, and, by reason of his office, he has had much contact with the lawmakers. A more popular federal official was never known, and tho' recognized as a staunch Republican the Democrats were equally fond of him."

He ran for congress in a mountain district of our state, and made a great campaign, riding horseback over the rough hills and meeting the people face to face. His talks were informal and confined to questions in which the mountain people were vitally interested. He is jolly and companionable, and a born leader of men, and pretty soon, though the district was Democratic, John Langley had captured it. The count showed him victor by 900 majority. Wherever Langley went he made friends galore. He is a man of splendid ability, and is in a better position to do good service for his constituents than any member of the Kentucky delegation.—Winchester Sun-Sentinel.

Jan. 6. ANON.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give $100 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

The Five Knots.

Pennsylvania Grit of Sunday, Jan. 12, will contain the opening chapters of a thrilling story entitled "The Five Knots," which deals in the mystery of necromancy as practiced by the South Sea Islanders. It is a thrilling story of hidden treasure stolen from the Malays of Borneo, and of the efforts of several of their number to recover it. In their endeavors they employ the "Blue Terror" or "Five Knots" mode of inflicting death on the thieves, one of whom was an English ship owner whose niece is the heroine of the story. A truly brave girl, she and her lover baffled the Malays for some time. This story is the most intensely interesting of all the latest novels, and Grit's readers get it before it is published in book form. In book form the story will cost $1.50, but a subscriber to Grit secures it, along with six or eight other complete novels during the year, to say nothing of 16 to 20 pages of interesting matter every week besides. Grit is $2.00 a year, but if you will send us $2.50, we will mail you THE HERALD and Grit both for one year.

Central Kentucky's Favorite Democratic Paper for $2.50 a Year.

Kentucky Evening Gazette makes a special mail rate for paid in advance subscriptions for 1908.

The Kentucky Evening Gazette is already the favorite newspaper of the Democrats of Central Kentucky. For the great presidential campaign of 1908, the Gazette makes a special offer of $2.50 for paid in advance subscriptions.

The Gazette has the press report of the United Press Association, and the most complete local and state service of any afternoon paper in the whole eastern section of Kentucky. It is a staunch Democratic paper, standing for the supremacy of Democratic principles in party affairs, and devoted to every movement tending to promote Democratic unity and harmony, and the return of the Democrats to power in Kentucky.

The Gazette is the sort of newspaper that the Democrats who read for a week will want to read for all the time. It has many features that will appeal to every member of the family, and is in every respect a clean, first class family newspaper. For the first two weeks of January the Gazeete will make the bargain rate of $2.50 for paid in advance subscriptions. No subscription after this date will be taken for less than the regular price of $3 00.

THE KENTUCKY EVENING GAZETTE,
(Incorporated.)

Lexington Herald for 1908.

Annual bargain offer by the leading morning paper in Central Keutucky.

Following the custom of several years past the management of the Lexington Hearld offers another special bargain of $5 per year for paid in advance subscription for the year 1908. This offer is made to old as well as to new subscribers, but old subscribers must pay up to January 1, 1908, at the regular rate of $6 per year to be in position to take advantage of the offer.

The Herald is the leading Democratic paper in Kentucky, outside of Louisville, with the report of the Associated Press, and a large and competent staff of special correspondents. It has unusual news facilities. Its market reports are accurate and they are worth more than the price of a year's subscription to the farmers and business men. The Herald makes a specialty of racing and baseball news and other sporting events. The Sunday Herald is not surpassed by any Sunday paper in the south, and it has no equals in other cities of less than 100,000 population. It always contains from 24 to 32 pages, with superior magazine features and comic section in colors.

The offer of $5 per year is only for the first fifteen days of January, after that the regular rates will apply. Hand your subscription to local agents or send directly to the Lexington Herald, Circulation Department.

GET RICH QUICK.

Schemes of this class have again come to grief along with the gullible investors, causing serious loss to innocent business concerns, as is always the case of panics in Wall St.

While this last lesson is yet fresh in mind, it is an opportune moment to consider causes and means to avoid like trouble in the future.

Direct your attention to that greatest of all Newspapers the Cincinnati Enquirer. From its columns one can readily detect the trend of currency, its lodging places, by whom handled, uses made of it, and final results.

Again you read quotations of bonds, Stocks, and Securities of every nature, fixing Status of all business from the retailer, to United States Government.

Also Current News, facts and reliable data covering the entire world; all sufficiently explicit to enable thinking people to avoid snags and follow the channel of success.

Its extra size and high price, is the secret of its ability to discover, obtain, print and serve its patrons with all the news, and cater to wants of people in every calling of life.

The Weekly Enquirer for the year 1908 has greatly increased its Clubbing offers which now include the most select and popular publications of the day at prices slightly over half the regular Subscription rates.

Do not overlook the fact that the year 1908 promises to excel in prosperity any of the past, and that the Enquirer printed at Cincinnati, Ohio, is one of the most reliable sources of information.
